ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED NOTES

INTRODUCTION

Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, VERIFICATION, AND SOURCE OF MONEY (A-1), CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2), WILL PROCEDURE (G-1), and WILL DRAFTING (G-3) checklists. It is intended to be used as a guide to gathering information needed to advise the will-maker and draft the will. This checklist must be considered in relation to the particular facts at hand and augmented and revised as appropriate. It is current to September 1, 2023.

New developments:

- COVID-19 pandemic. Counsel should keep apprised of developments related to COVID-19 (and response measures) that may affect wills and estates practice.
- Virtual witnessing and electronic wills. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, amendments were made to the Wills, Estates and Succession Act, S.B.C. 2009, c. 13 ("WESA") to allow witnessing of wills by videoconference (s. 35.2).

Of note:

• Aboriginal law. Special considerations apply to wills made by Indigenous persons. The Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5, applies to wills made by First Nations persons who ordinarily reside on First Nations land, and to their estate The Minister of Indigenous Services has broad powers over testamentary matters and causes (Indian Act, ss. 42 to 50.1). Sections 45 and 46 of the Indian Act govern the formalities of execution of a will. Also see the Indian Estates Regulations, C.R.C., c. 954, s. 15; the Minister may accept a document as a will even if it does not comply with provincial laws of general application. It is good practice, however, to ensure that a will or testamentary document governed by the Indian Act is executed in the presence of two witnesses, with those witnesses signing after the will-maker in the will-maker's presence.

A will governed by the Indian Act is of no legal effect unless the Minister accepts it, and property of the deceased cannot be disposed of without approval (Indian Act, s. 45(2) and (3)). The Minister also has the power to void a will, in whole or in part, under certain circumstances (Indian Act, s. 46(1)(a) to (f)). If part or all of a will is declared void, intestacy provisions in the Indian Act will apply (Indian Act, ss. 46(2) and 48). Should an executor named in a will be deceased, refuse to act, or be incapable of acting, a new executor can be appointed by the Minister (Indian Act, s. 43; Indian Estates Regulations, s. 11). The Minister has similar powers in intestacy situations. A provincial probate court may be permitted to exercise jurisdiction if the Minister consents in writing (Indian Act, ss. 44 and 45(3)). The Minister is also vested with exclusive jurisdiction over the estates of Indigenous persons with mental and/or physical incapacity (Indian Act, s. 51).

The Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act, S.C. 2013, c. 20, applies to married and common-law spouses living on First Nations land where at least one spouse is a First Nations person. Sections 13 to 52 apply to First Nations who have not enacted their own matrimonial real property laws. Sections 14 and 34 to 40 pertain to the consequences of the death of a spouse or common-law partner.

Other statutory restrictions may apply to estates governed by the Indian Act. For example, a person who is "not entitled to reside on a reserve" (still defined as "reserve" under the Indian Act) may not acquire rights to possess or occupy land on that First Nation under a will or on intestacy (Indian Act, s. 50), and no person may acquire certain cultural artifacts situated on First Nations land without written consent of the Minister (Indian Act, s. 91). As some First Nations have entered into treaties (e.g., the Nisga'a Final Agreement Act, S.B.C. 1999, c. 2, and the Tsawwassen First Nation Final Agreement Act, S.B.C. 2007, c. 39) that may have governance, property, and other related implications, consider the status of an Indigenous person instructing on a will and that of the First Nation in which a deceased was a member.

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED

WESA, Part 2, Division 3 allows for the intervention of the Nisga'a Lisims Government and treaty first nations where the will of a Nisga'a or treaty first nation citizen disposes of cultural property.

Further information on Aboriginal law issues is available on the "Aboriginal Law" page in the "Practice Areas" section of the Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia website (www.cle.bc.ca) and in other CLEBC publications. If acting with respect to a will or estate governed by the Indian Act, consider seeking advice from a lawyer who has experience in Aboriginal law matters.

3.8 Has there been a separation pursuant to the Family Law Act , S.B.C. 2011, c. 25? If so, have property division and support obligations been determined by agreement or by the court? Under the Family Law Act , in general, the parties share equally the increase in value of property acquired during the relationship, and the increase in value of "excluded property". The latter includes property brought into the relationship, gifts, and inheritances received by one spouse during the relationship, as well as certain interests in trusts. A person with whom the will-maker is in a marriage-like relationship under the Family Law Act will have the same rights to division of property as a legally married spouse.
3.9 Potential claims under constructive or resulting trusts against the estate assets.
3.10 Is the client an executor under an existing will?
3.11 Other possible restrictions on alienation of property, such as a marriage agreement, separation agreement, shareholders' agreement, and joint ventures.
TESTAMENTARY CAPACITY
4.1 WESA, s. 36 sets the minimum age for making a valid will at 16, and s. 38 carries forward the provisions for armed forces members on active service permitting holographic wills.

- 4.2 Mental capacity. See BC Code, rule 3.2-9 and item 2.4 of the WILL PROCEDURE (G-1) checklist. Does the will-maker show:
 - .1 An understanding of the nature of a will and its effects on claimants.
 - .2 An understanding of the extent of their estate.
 - .3 An appreciation of the claims to which they ought to give effect and an ability to rationally balance the competing claims.
 - .4 That they are free of delusions that may affect the foregoing decisions.
- 4.3 Evidentiary considerations where the will-maker's capacity is suspect.
 - .1 Keep a detailed record of observations including answers to questions that are relevant to the issue of testamentary capacity.
 - .2 Review reasons for changing any existing testamentary instruments.
 - .3 Before presenting the will for execution, ask once more what was wanted, and avoid leading the will-maker into yes/no answers.
 - .4 At the time of execution, there should be independent witnesses (i.e., non-beneficiaries) including, if necessary, several individuals who know the will-maker, and a qualified medical person.

	.1 Movables under the law of a foreign domicile.
	.2 Immovables under the law of the foreign jurisdiction in which they are situated.
	4.5 If mental capacity is suspect, consider retaining any prior will in case the new will is determined to be invalid.
5.	FRAUD, UNDUE INFLUENCE, SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES
	5.1 Question the client to make sure they know the true facts and really want to make a will. Question the client alone; get a third-party interpreter if required. (Be especially careful if taking instructions from someone other than the will-maker.) Watch for red flags that may indicate undue influence, and follow recommended practices for screening for undue influence. See Undue Influence Recognition and Prevention: A Guide for Legal Practitioners—British Columbia Law Institute (bcli.org) (British Columbia Law Institute, 2022).
	5.2 Record questions and answers.
	5.3 Ensure that the attestation clause of the will reflects the fact that the will has been translated or interpreted for the will-maker, where applicable.
